recorded four mortgages aggregating $4256, three transfers of mortgages and two releases of mortgages.

This interesting bit of political gossip comes by way of the Providence News.

"State Senator Maurice W. Flynn of Westerly, republican, will be opposed for the nomination of his party to the upper house this year by Representative John Ferguson, Jr., it was said Thursday by persons well acquainted with the political situation in the southern part of the state."

"This same man said that Michael Turano, who is connected with the law firm of Pettine and De Pasquale of Providence, but who is a resident of Westerly, would enter the republican caucus against Mr. Ferguson should he be prevailed upon to withdraw his name from the senatorial contest."

"The Italian voters of that district will support Mr. Turano, it is said, against Mr. Ferguson, because he is known to be a strong opponent of the principle of prohibition. For the same reason those who are familiar with conditions are guessing that Senator Flynn, if he wants the seat in the upper house for another term, will have no trouble in getting the republican nomination, even with Mr. Ferguson's following opposed to his renomination."

Edward Miner Sweet, 72, died Wednesday at his home on Tower Hill, following an attack with pleurisy. He was a member of the family of famous bonnet-makers, and, although he possessed ability in that line he did not practice. He was a carpenter by trade. Mr. Sweet was a son of William and Martha Turgeon Sweet, of South Kingstown. A brother, Dr. John Sweet, resides in Newport. Another brother, Dr. Benoni Sweet, of Wakefield, practices in that place and in Westerly and vicinity. George Sweet, who died thirty years ago, practiced bonnet-making in Wakefield. Mr. Sweet is survived by his widow, Caroline Carpenter Sweet, three daughters, Mrs. Albert Chappell, Mrs. Horace Webster and Mrs. Herbert Shannon, of Wakefield, and a son, William, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. Sweet died within a day of the fiftieth anniversary of his marriage.

The democrats of the house succeeded in having a roll call vote on a motion to discharge the special legislative committee from further consideration of the resolution proposing the abolition of property qualification for a constitutional amendment. The motion was lost, 52 to 38. The following republicans voted with the democrats: Ferguson, of Westerly; Boyle, of Cranston; Joslin, of Westerly; Talcott, of Providence; Archambault, Higgins of Woonsocket.

Beginning next week the school children of Rhode Island will contribute pennies and dimes to the fund to buy America's Gift to France—Monnie's Memorial statue commemorating the First Battle of the Marne. Should the state quota of $3000 not be reached in this way, subscription lists will be opened for the general public to contribute small sums of money, that all may be represented in the testimonial.

Twenty convicts at the state prison in Cranston have sent word to John F. Murphy, secretary of the Rhode Island Soldiers' Bonus board, that they would like to file their applications as soon as possible, so they may use the money to pay the fines they are working out. Mr. Murphy said that if there are any whose sentences do not expire before December 31 next, he would go to the prison and get their applications. Those whose sentences expire before that date will have to file their application in the usual way.

Senator Maurice W. Flynn of Westerly, introduced an act in amendment of sections 15 and 16 of chapter 1449, of the Public Laws, entitled "An Act Establishing a First Drainage District in the Town of Westerly, and Providing for the Construction, Infillment and Maintenance of a System of Public Drains or Sewers in Said District." Referred to corporations committee. The amendments increases the cost of the town in bonds from $200,000 and net to exceed $400,000. The judiciary committee reported favorably an amendment to the jury law, which would require jury lists to be furnished by boards of canvassers and registration.

Citizens of Narragansett were given a hearing before the house finance committee, Friday, in support of a bill appropriating $5000 toward the erection in that town of a monument to War Governor William Sprague. Chairman Peck suggested that the best course would be for the town to raise its outside funds first and then come to the state for a contribution. The republican party leaders have prepared a state of unpledged delegates to go to the national convention at Chicago, for endorsement by the Rhode Island republican state convention to be held April 1. There is room for a fourth delegate-at-large yet in the state. The selections are Governor R. Livingston Beekman of

Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions? Do you know why ointments do not give you quick and lasting relief? Why cutting and operations fail? Do you know the cause of piles is internal? That there is a stagnation of blood in the lower bowel? Do you know that there is a harmless internal tablet remedy discovered by Dr. Leonard and known as HEM-ROID, now sold by Lee & Good and druggists generally, that is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the internal cause, by freeing blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for sure, safe and lasting relief to thousands of pile sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation. There is no reason why it should not be the same for you.
